GRACIE MANSION TEA TOUR

Join us for a special afternoon at one of New York's most treasured landmarks. Built in 1799 by merchant Archibald Gracie as a country retreat, and restored to its original grandeur in 2002, Gracie Mansion is the last of the country homes that once lined Manhattan's East River shore. An elegant tea service in the Ballroom - featuring home-made finger sandwiches, scones and tea cakes - is followed by a guided tour of the historic mansion that's been home to nine NYC mayors, and hosted overnight guests from John Quincy Adams and Washington Irving to Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu. You'll enjoy rare 19th Century art and antiques, sweeping river views, and the dense colors, patterned interiors and faux finishes that typify the Federal style.

After the tour, we will visit nearby Carl Schurz Park. This picturesque park, partially hidden along the East River, is one of the city's best-concealed secrets. A stroll along the promenade provides beautiful views of the river, the Roosevelt Island Lighthouse, the Triborough Bridge, Randall's and Wards islands, and, of course, Gracie Mansion.

The Yoga postures (asanas) work each part of the body to stretch and tone the muscles, increase fluidity in the joints, and promote flexibility of the entire skeletal system. Have fun while exploring the fundamentals of this modern painting medium. In this class you will learn the characteristics of acrylic paint from set-up and how to handle them, to getting acquainted with the qualities of the colors and how they inter-mix.

The best part being the quick dry time and easy cleanup! We will work with a simple still life (photo reference will be supplied by instructor) creating a "value" painting, then a full color version and progress on to other subject matter. Individual attention, as well as demonstrations will be given. This class is ideal for all levels wishing to learn how to paint with acrylics!

FUN THINGS TO WHILE AWAY THE SUMMER

♦Turn into an expert. Pick a topic you're really interested in (like baseball, the civil war, coin collecting...it's entirely up to you) and spend a little time each week researching it online. By the end of the summer, you'll practically be an expert on the subject.

♦Become a reader. Make it a goal to finish off x number of books this summer. Pick a topic you've never tried before - science fiction, history, etc.-and then stake out a few reading spots. Sit under a tree, on a porch, etc.

♦Start an unusual collection...pick something you like! Sea glass, shells, stamps, matchbooks, and bottle caps are popular collectibles.

♦Play a game of tag, flag football, Frisbee, etc. in the rain. Why stay indoors just because the sun's not shining? Running around in the rain (as long as there's no thunder and lightning) is a great way to cool down.

♦Go on litter patrol. Pick a street, how about your own street, and make every effort to keep it litter-free this summer. Though this takes time and effort, the results are definitely worth it!

♦Develop a new talent. Wish you could play the piano or golf like a pro? All it takes is some daily practice, and you too could discover a hidden talent you never knew you had. Spend an hour at it each day, and you'll be better than ever by the end of the summer.

♦Go without technology for a day. Turn off your computer, tv, iPod, iPad and all the other gadgets you have. Play board games, read a book, do a jigsaw puzzle or explore the backyard.

SPANISH FOR BEGINNERS

with Thomas LaMothe

We know how it is - several years of Spanish, maybe even a Regents diploma, and yet you can’t have a simple conversation with the folks next door. It’s not you; it’s the way you were taught. But there’s hope. This course is practical help for adults who want to learn Spanish for real. We will explore and practice how to learn Spanish well enough to communicate effectively in the real world. Forget about those bad experiences in high school or college, or those expensive courses that didn’t deliver—here we’ll show you how it really works!

The instructor is a non-native speaker who started learning Spanish at age 40, with no prior experience, and now is able to use it professionally. And no, he didn’t live and work overseas, nor is he married to a Spanish speaker. In other words, although “your mileage may vary,” it CAN be done! Come and learn how to make it work for you.
